LOCAL NEWS.

LOUDOUN COUNTY FAIR.—Notwithstanding the rain yesterday, about 1,500 persons attended the Fair at Leesburg. Among other things, Reliance Lodge Knight of Pythias, from Washington, with an escort from Oriental and Mechanics' Lodges, of this city, paid a fraternal visit to Ketchikan Lodge at Leesburg, and went out to the Fair, where they were to have drilled, but were prevented by the inclement weather. At two o'clock the visiting Knights were handsomely entertained at the Reaner House, and then escorted to the train at four o'clock by the Leesburg Lodge. The other features of yesterday's proceedings were the racing and the auction. The following is the result of the former: Trotting in harness, best 3 in 5 mile heats in distance, 3 to start, time to be within 3 minutes, prize $150, 10 per cent. entrance fee. Second horse, won by Clark's (of Washington, D. C.) Washington, Jr., in 2:59, 2:50, 2:50. The second horse was Patterson's (Martinsburg, W. Va.) Harry. The prize amounted to $50. The second race running match won by Maddox's g. h. Mosby not timed, private purse, said to be $150. Auction was spirited, and many of the articles brought good prices. There was in attendance during the two first days of the Fair a large number of "chance" enterprises, than at even the State Fair, but the rain dampened the ardor of these itinerants yesterday. A large number of premiums were awarded, ranging from $25 to $1 each. The fair was a decided success.

CATHOLIC CHURCH AT FALLS CHURCH.—The Catholic ladies in the neighborhood of Falls Church, tender their sincere thanks to the choir of the Catholic church, in this city, for the able and efficient services rendered at the concert, given on the 5th instant, for the purpose of raising funds to build a Catholic church in the neighborhood of Falls Church. The choir is composed of Miss Stoutenburg, organist; Mrs. Monroe, Miss Nevitt, Miss Saunders, Miss Roach, and Mrs. S. Stoutenburg, Mr. J. Wilkins, and others, and were accompanied by their able pastor, Father O'Kane. Miss Stoutenburg deserves especial mention for the superb manner in which she performed upon the organ. LOCAL BREVITIES.

A large portion of the floor of the butcher's shop of Mr. Beuhm, near the upper end of King street, was discovered to be on fire about three o'clock this morning by Mr. Tyler, who was on his way to market. An oil torch had turned over and its inflammable contents being ignited illuminated the whole street in front of the store. The two shop boys were fighting the flames when Mr. Tyler passed and with the latter's assistance the fire was extinguished.

A colored man named Al. Wright, who when drunk stumbled against a colored woman named Eliza Gray, while walking up King street night before last, and for doing so was struck by the latter on the side with a brick, and received such severe injuries that for a time it was thought his spleen had been ruptured and that he would die, has improved so much since that his physician now thinks he will recover.

The protracted meeting that has been in progress in the Baptist Church for the last two weeks will be continued during next week, during which time the pastor will be assisted by Rev. Dr. Thomas.

This closes up all arrangement by which the banks have made common cause to check the panic. In every way the management of the affair has been a success, not a bank here having failed and only the sum of $450,000 of Clearing House certificates having been necessary to tide over the period of the panic.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—A. D. Williams & Co. have been indefinitely suspended from membership in the Stock Exchange for overvaluing their accounts on the Bank of North America on September 20 and failing to make the sum good in the proper time. The Indians.

WACO, TEXAS, Nov. 8.—Captain J. Egin, who has just returned from an extensive trip on the frontier, reports that the Indians are as bad as they have been since the war, if not worse. All the Indians are off from their reservations except Santa. They are headed by Big Tree and have stolen nearly all the horses on Little Washita river and Westfork. Seven-ty-five or one hundred Indians crossed the Little Washita last week. A party of thirteen stole two horses in Jacksboro on Sunday night. It is reported that a surveying party camped outside at Jacksboro were fired upon by Indians.

From Spain.

BAYONNE, Nov. 8.—Intelligence has just been received here of a great victory by the Carlists over the Spanish Government troops after a desperate fight near the town of Miranda del Arga, in the province of Navarre. The loss of the Republicans was very great, including among the killed Lieutenant General Primo de Rivera. General Moriones was wounded and taken prisoner by the Royalists with forty-one other officers of the Government army. The Carlists also lost heavily. Among the wounded on their side was Gen. Olla and other chiefs.

THE STOKES JURY.—The eighth juror has come to some grief, and may come to more. Judge Davis has imprisoned him for thirty days and imposed a fine of two hundred and fifty dollars upon him, with a further incarceration of the same length if the fine should not be paid, for contempt of court. Meanwhile the Grand Jury is making an annoying investigation into still graver offences charged against some of the Stokes jurors. This example will have a demoralizing effect, no doubt, upon the Tweak jury; but what is the "Boss" going to do about it?—N. Y. Herald.

A JOKE.—The Bristol News has its little joke about the late Radical disaster, as follows: Fatal Duel.—A deadly duel was fought yesterday between Colonel R. W. Hughes and General James L. Keuper. Colonel Hughes fell at the first fire and has not spoken since. At this hour he is in a condition of extreme prostration, bordering on collapse, and there is no hope entertained of his recovery. The affair occurred at the ballot box, and General Keuper left at once for the city of Richmond. This settles the question of Colonel Hughes' disability.

Dr. Albert Senead and Mr. Wm. Rutherford, died in Richmond on Thursday.

The Death of Bishop Early.

The venerable Bishop John Early died at his residence on Court street, in Lynchburg, at a quarter to nine o'clock yesterday morning. Had the Bishop lived until the first day of January next, he would have been eighty-eight years old. Bishop Early became incapacitated for the active work of the Bishopric about six years ago, since which he has been confined to his house the greater portion of the time. In lieu of anything we might say about the great and good man who has just passed, in full faith to the mansions above, we clip an interesting biography from the "Memorials of Methodism in Virginia," written by the Rev. Dr. Bennett:—

"The name of John Early has been as familiar as a household word among American Methodists for the last fifty years. Since the death of Bishop Soule, perhaps no man among us is more fully acquainted with the history and achievements of Methodism during that period than this eminent minister.

"He was born in Bedford county, Virginia, January 1st, 1780. His parents were members of the Baptist Church, in affluent circumstances, and occupying a high social position. He was converted under the ministry of Rev. Sixth Mead, at Flat Rock Church, Bedford, now Campbell county, April 23d, 1804. He soon united with the Methodists, and his youthful zeal found scope in the subordinate offices of the Church, which he filled with signal usefulness. One of the scenes of his early labors was the large estate of President Jefferson, many of whose slaves the young preacher instructed and led to Christ. In April, 1806, he was licensed to preach, and was employed by the Presiding Elder on Bedford circuit. He preached his first sermon at Wilson's Church, and when he served at the pulpit, the tears he shed on parting with his loved ones at home were frozen on his overcoat. He spent the rest of the year in earnest labors on this circuit, and at its close gave himself to the full work of the itinerancy. From this work he has never turned aside. His labors were greatly blessed in the various fields of toil. In Greenville he received five hundred members into the Church. At a famous camp meeting, held by him at Prospect, Prince Edward county, while Presiding Elder of the Meherrin District, it is said that in seven days about one thousand persons professed conversion. Under a sermon delivered by him at that meeting on the words, 'And if he bear fruit, will; and if not then after that thou shalt cut it down,' to an audience of three thousand, not more than a hundred remained unmoved.

"His administrative talents attracted the notice of Bishop Asbury, and he was called to the office of Presiding Elder, after he had travelled only seven years. He was offered various civil appointments by different Presidents, but declining them all, he labored as a man of one work. He felt that he was doing a great work and could not come down. Possessing a physical frame of wonderful powers of endurance, he has been able to do the full work of an itinerant preacher for almost sixty years. With a mind bold, strong, clear and comprehensive, he gathered a vast fund of knowledge in reference to the practical operations of Methodism, and was a living encyclopedia of all facts, precedents and examples which have occurred in the Church, since he first took his seat in an Annual Conference. In every department to which the Church has called him, he served with zeal, success, and undeviating devotion to all her interests. As a circuit preacher, Presiding Elder, Conference Missionary, College Agent, Book Agent, and then in the high office of Bishop, he has shown himself to be a man ready for every good work."

A Confessed Murder.

RICHMOND, Nov. 7.—The German consul in this city has received from Strasburg, Germany, a confession of Hermann Rudolph Wilhelm Vollrath, who accuses himself of having murdered a man in King George county, Va., in April 1869. Vollrath was employed by a fishing company on the Potomac. He says he was walking in the woods, when he met a stranger, apparently Irish, whom he asked for a light for his pipe. A conversation ensued, during which Vollrath saw the stranger's pocket book containing a large sum of money, and on the impulse of the moment attempted to rob him. Being resisted, and fearing the result of the escape of his victim, he drew a knife and stabbed him through the heart. He buried his victim, returned to work, and becoming conscience stricken, threw the money into the river. He went to Germany, became conscripted into the army, and is now in the military prison for a petty offence. The confession was voluntary.

POLITICAL.—The contest for Senator Lewis' seat in the United States Senate will now commence in earnest. As the General Assembly elects the Senator almost immediately after organization, nearly all the wire-pulling must be done before the first of January. It is hardly possible that any but an able and honest man should be chosen from this time, hence candidates whose names have, up to this time, been mentioned. The most prominent names are those of R. M. T. Hunter, Gov. Walker, Judge Ould, A. H. H. Stuart, General Kemper and Colonel Withers. I do not believe that Gen. Kemper will consent to be a candidate, although his name is freely used. He has hitherto declared that it was his purpose to serve a full term as Governor of Virginia, and that he would not consider his election to the Senate a promotion from the gubernatorial chair. Gov. Walker's friends are going to urge his claims with great vigor and persistency, and at present there is no candidate with more apparent strength. It was supposed that Mr. Hunter's name would be withdrawn, but it has not. He goes into the fight with one supporter, whose followers are a host and who is seldom beaten on any field. Judge Ould's ability and reputation ensure him many friends. As to the other candidates I can only say that either would make a creditable Senator, but Mr. Stuart's speech in Richmond has not added to his popularity, and it is exceedingly doubtful whether Colonel Withers has consented to be a candidate at all. The fight is likely to be lively and interesting, and the people need have no fear of the result when it is remembered the next Legislature will be the ablest we have had in Virginia for years.—Letter from Richmond.

A PATRIARCH GONE.—On Monday evening, just at the setting of the sun, Captain Richard Pleasantts Saddath, of Albemarle county, aged ninety-three, breathed his last so gently that his friends scarcely perceived it, at the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. H. A. Darrow.

Mr. S. was a worthy citizen, honest, industrious and hospitable, and had been for long years a tiller of the soil of his ancestors. His health had always been uncommonly good, and he stood erect till his latter days, robust, athletic and hearty. He often said that during his life he never knew what pain or ache meant.

The deceased was a grand nephew of the revolutionary patriot, Gen. Thomas Sumpter, of South Carolina, who was a native of Albemarle county, and died when he was in the prime of his manhood. He was first cousin to the late John Hampden Pleasantts, esq. Two sisters of the deceased survive him—Mrs. Porterfield and Mrs. Littlefield—both of whom are residing near Abingdon, Va.—Jeffersonian Republican.
